

FREE EDUCATION

Standing Against Injustice

If you want to take college classes but have been unable to afford it, you may qualify for the Bridge Program, offered through Antioch University Los Angeles. Study Writing, Philosophy, Art History, and Literature at no cost.

Students in The Bridge Program will:

- Take free writing and humanities courses for 9 months
- Work closely with faculty and tutors
- Earn up to 12 units of college credit
- Receive free textbooks and supplies for your classes

Applicants to The Bridge Program must:

- Be adults eager to work cooperatively with others
- Be able to read a newspaper in English
- Be within 200% of current federal poverty guidelines

Classes for the 2023-2024 academic year will be offered in flexible formats. Students will need reliable internet and computer access for class. Face-to-face opportunities and events may be available, as safety permits.

FREE

Tuition & Books.

ANTIOCH
UNIVERSITY

LOS ANGELES

APPLY TODAY

 www.aulabridge.org/

 310-578-1080 x3323

 @BridgeAULA

 /BridgeAULA

 bridge.aula@antioch.edu

